

Well, it was a bit wild and woolly at my place last night, with thunder rumbling and rain pouring down, but look at the weather today. The course is looking nice and green, so hopefully the rest of winter treats us kindly.

Please take time to check for any signage as you come into the car park, as Tukai puts out a sign if the course opening is delayed for frost etc, and that will let you know. We have had a couple of delayed starts already with frost, so just keep a check.

HELLO WORLD SOCIAL DAY – Sunday 7 June 2020

The first Hello World is this Sunday, and the forecast is looking great for this. Shotgun start at 12.00 pm, stableford competition, and divisions dependent on entries. Members $20, Visitors $25.

Note that maximum handicap indexes apply. (Men 36.4 Ladies 40.4)

Prizes this year are starting at $50 per division, and the overall prize is $1000 of travel vouchers, Donella and her team at HelloWorld do a fabulous job, so thanks again for your support.

Unless there is a change in our COVID level, this tournament is limited to 90 at this stage. If we change levels, this will change also.

I've been lucky enough to get a sneak preview of the meals/snacks on offer on Sunday, so am looking forward to having dinner here. Here are your choices:

Beef Stroganoff served with rice, steamed veges and garlic bread – $15

Chicken curry served with rice, steamed veges and garlic bread – $15

Pizza – cranberry, chicken and brie $15

Hawaiian Chicken Burger with chips $10

Sausage bites/chips $8

Fish bites /chips $10

Crumbed prawns/chips $10

Oriental platter $10

Or an assorted platter of the above $15.

How cool are our members.

One of our lovely Lady golfers came in the other day and said she had worked out that she would have spent $10 a week at golf for her haggie and raffle, so wanted to donate $100 to cover our loss from this during the lock down.

What a generous thing to do, and an example to others.

Due to folk shifting etc, I have a couple of cart spaces in the shed over the road if anyone is looking to get a cart.

There are also trundler shed spaces available as well. Just let me know if you are interested and I can let you know what happens next and get this sorted for you.

TOWN AND COUNTRY 2020 - 21 JUNE 2020

Another exciting event coming up is our annual Town & Country Tournament, and this is being held on Sunday 21 June 2020.

This tournament was set up by farmers to support the Club, and continues to run along the same lines.

It is known for it's great prize table with some spectacular sponsors donating or discounting products, but the highlight for me is the auction.

If you wondered how some people get named car parks - this is the tournament where 4 car parks are auctioned to the highest bidder, and they are for your use for the following year. As you can imagine there is often vigorous bidding for these. There is also lots of other neat things included, like fishing trips, sirloin rolls, lambs, and an awesome raffle as well.

Farmer sponsors are being contacted now and the poster will go up on Monday.

This is one tournament where you have to register to me, as spots are limited for the shotgun start.

Watch out for the poster.

SID'S DUCK DAY TROPHY WINNER ROBERT READING

Most of the playing calendar seems to be getting back on track, so hopefully there aren't too many changes we have to make to the programme. Decisions have been made to just bypass some competitions as it would be too difficult to re-arrange everything to fit. Getting the programme sorted in the first place is like a jigsaw puzzle, so lockdowns etc just throw everything into confusion.

That's about me done for this week.

It's nice to have the tables upstairs back to the usual numbers (but remember at this stage it is still a group of 10 maximum), and thanks everyone for complying with the COVID regulations. As soon as we find out what is happening and when we are going to level one, watch out for revised local rules, but I feel contact tracing will continue. So either make an on-line booking, print a card or sign in please.

I guess I will see some of you on Sunday, and if I don't you know where I am for any questions you may have.
Stay safe, and catch you next week.
